

Welcome Fellow Respite Conference Attendees!

So glad that you've ventured to The LaChris Connection's website! It was extremely rewarding to network with you all and share about the joys and struggles associated with the giving and receiving of special needs care.

The act of pooling our understanding of the complexities involved in the administration and provision of this crucial service will continue to benefit TLC's and, I'm sure, your efforts as well. Please consider duplicating TLC's model of bringing families together with respite providers by viewing our "Meet the Parents" page! And don't forget care.com's efforts to provide services and information to families touched by special needs!

It's so wonderful that the bottom line for all of us is a loving concern for children, adults and seniors with special needs and the preservation of their families.

So, have you sorted all your contact business cards and put them into your database? Right! Me neither! Please take a moment to fill out TLC's fellow agency/professional's questionnaire.

Please find below the outline and handouts for TLC's E.D., Louise Bruce's session B-2 "Reasons, Respect & Relationship ... A workshop for caregivers and respite providers"

You may view and/or print:

All handouts of breakout session B-2's

*Session's outline with red 'fill ins' as displayed in session.

Or, instead of the whole batch, choose from items listed below:

Session related:

Welcome

Overview (intro. to presenter & session summary)

Workshop outline / blank fill-in sheet; pages 1-3

Participants' Questionnaire / Class Contribution

Outline with red 'fill ins'* as displayed in session.

General information handouts:

Interviewing strategies and Q&A's

A model of types or branches of respite needs

A sample of multi agency collaborative goals list.

*same document listed twice